By the Court

Hon'ble B.C. Kandpal, J.

Heard Sri S.K. Aggarwal, learned senior advocate assisted by Sri Gopal K. Verma, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri U.K. Uniyal, learned senior advocate appearing on behalf of C.B.I. and perused the record.

In this case, the amount had been withdrawn by Chitransh General Supplies Agency belonging to Km. Reena Srivastava, sister-in-law of the applicant – Reena Srivastava who is alleged to have withdrawn the money, has already remitted the major portion of that money and she was granted bail by this Court. The allegation against the applicant is that he got the money paid to Reena Srivastava by preparing forged bills.

Having considered the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case. I think, it would be just and proper to release the applicant on bail at this stage.

Let the applicant Ravindra Srivastava be released on bail on his executing a personal bond and furnishing two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of Magistrate/Judge, C.B.I. concerned.
